

Name of the project: Media Literacy Education for Youth

Contract description: The project will include conducting a series of media literacy workshops with high school-age youth throughout BiH, as well as a production and promotion of short educational video tutorials involving peer educators, public figures, fact checkers, journalists, etc. A social media campaign will be conducted in parallel.