

Name of the activity:

Debunking key current disinformation narratives

Description of the contract: The contract will include procurement of services in relation to identification of disinformation trends in the current geopolitical context, production of analyses debunking the key disinformation narratives identified as well as the organisation of a public event to present the analyses and facilitate a panel discussion on the topic. The contract also includes raising awareness and promotion of the above.